THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26.

A lady living in Milwaukee gave birth Saturday, to her twenty-third child, a boy weighing eight pounds. She is not yet 40 years old. She was married at the age of 13, and has given birth to one child every year since her marriage. Her husband is a brakeman on the St. Paul road.

According to a Detroit paper, Charles H. Plummer, wealthy lumberman of East Saginaw, Mich., has offered to give five acres of good farming land to each of the families of the police officers murdered at the Haymarket not in Chicago, with sufficient lumber for the building of a house, provided only that they will be content to occupy the same.

A rumor is current in London that P. T. Barnum will soon open his greatest show on earth in that city. One paper informs its readers that Barnum is well-known politically, having represented the Connecticut district for many years in the upper house at Washington. During this period he was a large dealer in mules, in which business he laid the foundation of his present large fortune.

The saloon keepers of Boston are annoyed by the drug men who sell cigars on Sundays, when the saloons are closed by law. A test case has been raised in which it is to be decided whether or not cigars are drugs. If the decision be in favor of the pill-dispensers, de-nicotinized tobacco will be knocked out of time. No druggists will handle cigars that do not contain the drug that both soothes the smoker and circumvents the law.

H. S. Pierce, son of Representative Pierce, of Logan county, Illinois, is suffering from glanders contracted in Northwest Missouri. The young man had some horses afflicted with what was supposed to be distemper, and in smoking them broke the skin upon his left hand. Sometime thereafter a sore was developed upon his hand, which was followed by running sores upon the arm, leg and ankle. Dr. Ranch of the state board of health, made a close examination and pronounced the disease to be glanders in a mild form.

Both the republican and democratic parties in New York concurred that the prohibition vote in that state will be higher this year than ever before. It has been steadily increasing since 1880, in which year it amounted to 1,517, reaching 36,414 in 1886. This year the republicans put it at 45,000 and the democrats at 30,000. The probability that it will equal the lower figure makes the contest in that state exciting. The estimates which the two great parties make of the labor vote are widely divergent, the republican conjecture being 90,000 and the democratic 60,000.

The Atlanta Constitution satisfies the popular interest in the Emma Abbott episode at Nauvoo by printing in full the sermon which called out her protest. It proves to be one of the old fashioned, narrow-gauge sermons on the theater, without any specially modern features.

There was no reflection on the morals of the members of the profession, but much about the evil influence of plays upon the audience. A specimen bribe is the statement that "the theater has grown worse in these latter days, perhaps." The preacher should read a few old English or French comedies.

In 1842 Zachary Taylor, then a candidate for president of the United States, wrote a letter which was to be deposited in the corner stone of a monument to be erected in Washington which was to be erected in the city of New York. That letter is still above ground, that corner stone never having been placed.—Baltimore American.

This illustrates the progress New York will make in erecting the Grant monument. Not only has the corner stone not been laid, but the site has not been secured and not one-tenth of the money has been raised, and the subscriptions have stopped altogether. Nothing slow-moving has yet been found that the way the New York City people erect monuments.

According to an opinion recently rendered by the attorney-general of the state of Texas, at the request of the secretary of state, there is no law expressly authorizing foreign or domestic corporations to purchase, own or hold lands within the state, with such purpose alone in view, and by clear implication, as well as by the general course of legislation touching the subject, the class of corporations referred to cannot lawfully purchase or hold lands within the state when such is their main purpose of incorporation. The attorney-general has therefore advised the secretary of state to decline to file the charter of a Scotch land and cattle company.

It is stated that the Panama Canal company's official bulletin, as quoted by the Panama Star and Bulletin, that the excavation for the month of July "on the canal proper" amounted to 360,000 cubic meters, 49,000 of which represent the work done in the Culebra section. This section includes the highest elevation and is the most formidable of all the divisions. But at this rate the completion of the canal will require more than the nineteen years indicated, as M. Leroy-Beauchen has shown by the official record of work done in the Culebra. The excavation of 49,000 meters in a month is a very poor fulfillment of the glowing promise made by M. De Lesseps at a meeting of shareholders held in 1885. Having said that there were 20,000,000 meters to be removed in the Culebra section, he announced that the contractors in charge proposed to take out 61,000 meters a month from January 1, 1886, to July 1, 1887, and thereafter when the cut should have become deep, 300,000 meters a month. But the president of the canal company is sometimes guilty of exaggeration.

A more striking illustration of legislative intertemporality cannot be found than the law which permits Kansas to sentence a man to serve a maximum of 30 years and $20,000 fine for selling liquor. The penalty has been commuted by the governor from six weeks' imprisonment and $500 fine; but even this is a wild mockery on justice in a state where two-thirds of the drug-store proprietors, if reports are true, habitually violate the statute by selling whisky.—Ez.

It is just that kind of intertemporal administration of the law that brings courts and law into contempt. No one ever thought that the drug-store would ever serve seventeen years in jail, or pay a fine of $20,000 for selling liquor in a drug store; and the fact that his sentence has been commuted to six weeks, and then reduced to only $500, will make people laugh with scorn at such a mockery of justice, and will be a notice to Kansas that the law does not mean what it says. Of course the first sentence was ridiculous, and no one for a moment supposed that it would be carried out. It will be pretty hard after this to make people believe that there are any virtues in the penalties prescribed in Kansas for a wilful violation of the prohibitory law in that state. Penalties must be reasonable and sentences must be in good faith otherwise nothing but mockery will come of the law.

John Dooley, driver of engine No. 5 Chicago fire department, was killed this morning while attempting to climb to his seat on a hose carriage. He missed his step and fell in front of the wheels of the hose carriage, which passed over him.

PARTY ORGANIZATION.

Civil-Services Commissioner Lyman Takes Issue with Comptroller Edgerton on the Subject—The Public Service Must Not Be Retarded by Party Politics.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Civil-Services Commissioner Lyman, who with his family has just returned to the city, was interviewed by an Associated Press reporter yesterday.

In reply to inquiries by the reporter, Mr. Lyman said that he had read Mr. Oberly's letter to the Illinois association, and a reported interview with Mr. Edgerton on the points raised and discussed in that letter, and that in the main his views coincided with those of Mr. Oberly. He regretted that the members of the Illinois association, whether composed of Democrats, Republicans, labor reformers, temperance advocates or what not, as very objectionable, if not illegal, and certain to demoralize the public service, and to defeat one object of the Civil-Services law, viz., to secure a non-partisan partisan service within the sphere of operation of that law. He further pointed out that the anti-partisan and non-partisan methods of operation of the party in power as a trade should have no place. He concluded:

"Once concede that the adherents in the public service of the party in power may organize themselves into associations for the purpose of maintaining the party's power, and the party's imperial action in the Civil Service law, the right must also be conceded to those in the service opposite to the party in power to organize themselves into associations for the purpose of overthrowing that party and driving it out of power; and when all parties are thus organized, and the members of these associations in the public service are enough to condemn the whole movement and should secure instant abandonment."

THE RODD & MAXWELL CRASH.

Fears That the Lumber Firm's Failure Is Worse Than at First Reported—A Branch Assigns.

ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 26.—The opinion is pretty strong here among business men that the Rodd & Maxwell failure is even worse than appeared at the start. It is believed their liabilities will be fully $200,000. There is a loss of $100,000, but only a part of the assets have been recovered. New suits and endless amounts of litigation will doubtless follow the failure. Mr. Maxwell leaves no room for doubt as to the amount of the assets, as he says himself that there is $400,000 worth of property.

WISCONSIN, Wis., Oct. 26.—The second chapter in the Rodd & Maxwell failure was concluded Monday night by the firm of Rodd, Maxwell & Chaffield, sucking in as assignees of the assets of L. W. Rodd. The new firm were heavily indebted to Rodd, Maxwell & Chaffield. The former's failure carries with it the latter. The assets and liabilities are unknown.

Three Men Killed.

Appleton, Oct. 26.—A special gives particulars of a fatal accident between Frederick and Elmendorf early yesterday morning. The boiler of the engine of the John H. Glass threshing outfit exploded on the farm of George Irwin, caused by a pump suddenly forced into the boiler. John Glass, Fred Gardner, of Gardner, D. T., and Fred Eannister were killed. Two others were severely wounded. The victims leave families.

Awful Fate of Two Children.

HUNTER, D. T., Oct. 26.—Monday, while Mrs. Eugene Kelly was away from home a few hours, the house was set afire. The two children were in the house and were burned to death as they used a bay-burner stove. It is believed the fire caught in the hay that was on the floor. The wind was strong and the house could not be saved.

Sturgeon Bay Lumber Company.

STURGEON BAY, Wis., Oct. 26.—W. D. McLean has reported that the liabilities of the Sturgeon Bay Lumber Company are $180,000, and estimates the assets at $120,000.

TEXT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

The Mercies Shown by the Giver of All Enumerated—Their Grateful Charitable Recommendation—Charity for the Needy Urged.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The following proclamation was issued late yesterday evening by the President of the United States:

"The goodness and the mercy of God which have followed the American people during all the days of the past year claim their grateful recognition, and humble acknowledgment. By His omnipotent power He has protected us from all danger and preserved us from every National calamity; by His gracious favor the earth has yielded a generous return to the labors of the husbandman, and every pursuit has been successful, save that of the slave. His loving care has attended us in our trials, and His watchful eye has directed us in the ways of National prosperity.

"To the end that we may, with one accord, testify our gratitude for all these blessings, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 24th day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and of prayer, that we may more abundantly acknowledge the goodness of our God.

"On that day let all secular work and employment be suspended. Let our people assemble in their places of prayer, and let us offer up our thanks to God for His mercies, and for the preservation of His people. Let us, in our thanksgiving, exhort
